2012—Zeta Lambda Alumni BBQ at The University of Tulsa Homecoming

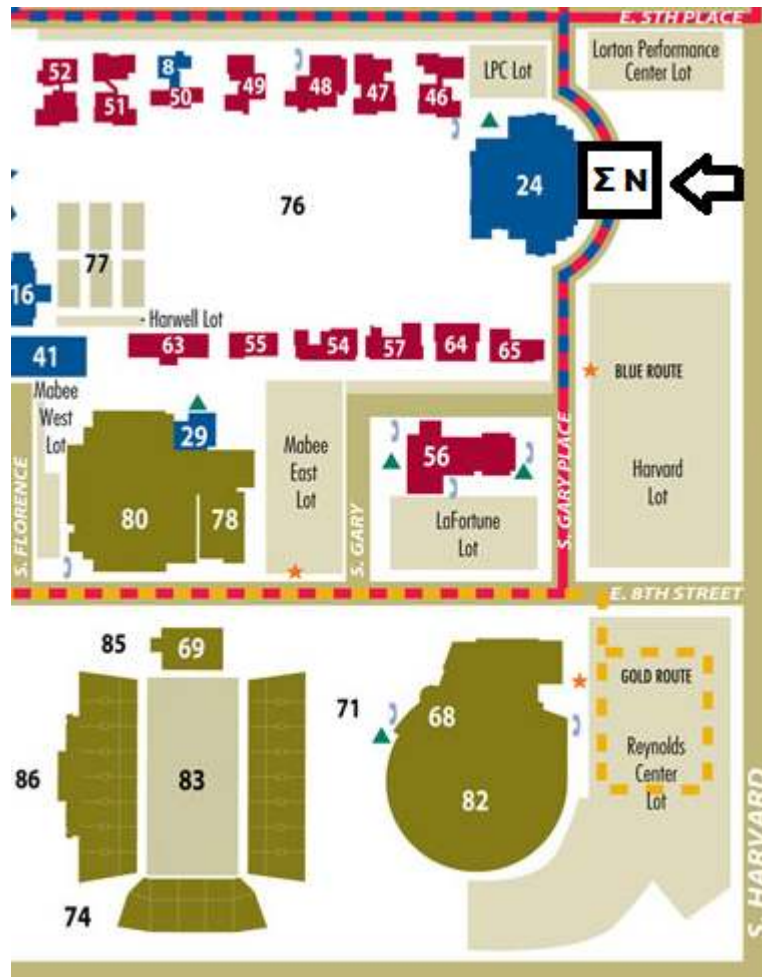

Brothers and friends, 2012 is one of the rare years when the University of Tulsa Homecoming weekend coincides with Oktoberfest and the Zeta Lambda Alumni Chapter will be taking full advantage. This year we will have our annual Alumni BBQ on-campus before the Tulsa Hurricane homecoming game against the Rice University Owls. Please take a minute to mark your calendars, and make initial traveling plans if you do not live in town. Every year we have the BBQ, the turnout has increased and we look to really have a large showing for this year. Family and Friends welcome!!

When: Sat. Oct 20th, We'll start at 10:30AM. Kickoff versus Rice is 2:30PM.

Where: Our Alumni tailgate will be setup near where the old Snake house used to be. On the lawn in front of the new Lorton Performance Center.

What: Food & drinks provided. (We will have some beer, but you may want to also byob).

RSVP: To help with a headcount, please RSVP to jeremy-edwards@utulsa.edu

Zeta Lambda Alumni—Fundraising

Brothers, I think we can all agree that as an alumni group there is a need for a formal way to make contributions and have a “war chest” of funds available when needed. As an example; for the past few years, the financial burden of our yearly Alumni BBQ has been carried by a smallish number of brothers; and each year more and more brothers ask how they can give and help out with costs that may arise.

To start the account we have several generous brothers who have mailed in checks to be used as a base. Going forward, there will be a report included in our newsletters which will detail our Revenues, Expenses, and Total Assets in the account.

The funds will be accounted for, and used only for Zeta Lambda Alumni expenses. Some examples include the yearly Alumni BBQ expenses, Website and domain hosting, etc.
